There's a reason this rise is so worth it. This is where nature cushions some of Burnside's most exciting homes, extend to a myriad of hiking trails, lookouts, and prominent schools, then signs off with exquisite sunsets and a silhouette of the city's ever-expanding skyline. Set over 3 unique levels, this architecturally designed up to 4-bedroom home sits proudly amongst them, cleverly built to hug its high perch while hosting a trio of terraces to showcase its foothills elevation. Showcasing style within, the contemporary home's muted hues, plush carpets, polished hardwood floors and scaled glazing let the welcome outlooks steal the show. Entering via the side portico or secure dual garage, the master bedroom makes an exclusive haven of the main level with a walk-in robe, spa ensuite, and a private balcony to take those views alone. Upstairs honours open plan family living with terrace access for those twinkling skies; the gourmet kitchen on hand with stainless appliances, a bonus storeroom, and a Caesarstone sweep of breakfast bar serving space. Discreetly nearby, the guest powder room and shower room are harmoniously divided, giving the two serene rear bedrooms only steps to freshen up, each granted front terrace access and arched panes that follow the arc of its lofty ceilings. The lower ground floor settles in for nights with friends, around the pool table, a family movie, or for guest accommodation, with yet another enticing terrace viewpoint for treetop tranquillity... There's nothing the elite East doesn't serve up. So why not reach for the stars? Don't settle for standard; rise above: Torrens titled architectural design 3 incredible levels with spectacular city views. Stunning hardwood floors. Cloakroom storage on entry.
