

4B Alto Avenue, Seaforth, NSW 2092

STONE

Sold House

Friday, 1 September 2023

4B Alto Avenue, Seaforth, NSW 2092

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 529 m2

Type: House

Lauren Sudol
0438138675

Contact agent

Built and impeccably maintained by a master builder as his own family home, this well-constructed property, privately set in an intimate leafy enclave surrounded by reserve, offers a retreat-like atmosphere that belies its convenient location. Open concept living spills out onto a north-facing timber deck surrounded by pristine bushland and low maintenance gardens, providing a serene setting for relaxation or entertaining. With high-quality finishes and features throughout, multiple living spaces, as well as a large studio/workshop, this lovely home offers an enviable living experience for its lucky owners. - Classic shaker-profile kitchen with Caesarstone benchtops and breakfast bar- Study/home office with custom-built desk and storage; additional living space / 4th bedroom downstairs- Practical, open concept living with kitchen, dining and living flowing out onto private wraparound deck- Master suite with built-in robes and large shower ensuite with double basin vanity and heated towel rail - Two additional double bedrooms, both with built-in robes- Family bathroom with heated towel rail - Ducted air conditioning throughout; polished hardwood floors and plantation shutters- Large lock-up studio/workshop with lighting and power- Remote double garage with easy covered access into home- Short walk to North Balgowlah Primary, easy access to shopping, cafes and bus transport