On the edge of the CBD this modern first floor apartment enjoys the warm embrace of a sun-drenched northern aspect, casting a discerning gaze over the immediate heritage surrounds and leafy Murchison Square. Well-presented, it features two double bedrooms both with built in robes and the main with balcony, a central bathroom with shower over bath, spacious open plan kitchen with stone benchtops, gas stove top and dishwasher, plus, living and dining opening to the full width balcony. Other features include secure basement off street parking, electric panel heating, and European laundry. In an unbelievable location it is steps to Carlton Gardens, Nicholson Street trams, Brunswick Street, Lygon Street, shops, cafes and only moments further to the CBD, universities, and medical facilities.
