If you love 70's charm, you will certainly love this extra spacious family sized single level villa home and its prize position. One of only six homes, this sunny north facing three-bedroom home can be enjoyed immediately or further improved to your own requirements. With its excellent room sizes, high ceilings, loads of natural light and 70's design elements the property is set for the next chapter. Take a gentle stroll to Caulfield Park, various modes of transport, Monash University and the many culinary delights along Hawthorn, Glenhuntly and Balaclava Roads. The position is truly unbeatable. • A wide terrazzo patio leads to inviting entry with polished floorboards throughout. • An open plan living and dining area connects seamlessly with the entertainer's kitchen. • Three very well-proportioned bedrooms with BIR's (the master features a dressing room). • Central tiled family bathroom with bath and shower recess, plus a guest's powder room. • A separate laundry with access to the service courtyard. • Lock-up garage ideal for hobbies or off-street parking. • The home also benefits from a recent decor update throughout. Your personal inspection will not disappoint
