Basking in the luxury of a secluded position at the rear of an as-new boutique group of just five, this stunning 3-bedroom, 2.5-bathroom townhouse is a must-see for all discerning buyers. Finished to an exacting standard throughout and cleverly zoned for harmonious daily living, the tri-level residence is saturated in natural sunlight - its inviting and incredibly stylish interiors complemented by two extremely useable alfresco areas. Securely gated for added peace of mind, the home opens to an entry level that includes an ensuited bedroom with courtyard access, while upstairs the first floor is dedicated entirely to entertaining. Here, a gourmet kitchen with high-end Bosch appliances (900mm oven & cooktop) and walk-in pantry looks out across the vast living/dining area softened by floaty sheer curtains & light-washed chevron-style flooring to a sunny terrace - a space perfect for unwinding at the end of the working day. Two additional bedrooms and a designer bathroom are positioned on the home's uppermost level - also offered are ducted heating/cooling, split system heating/cooling, video intercom, electric blinds and double auto garage with handy European-style laundry. Carnegie station and the many attractions along Koornang Road a just moments away and this sought-after address is close to Carnegie Central and Carnegie Primary School while Chadstone The Fashion Capital is approximately 10 minutes away by car. We donate a portion of our fee from every property transaction to the Woodards Foundation to support people experiencing homelessness, family violence and social isolation.
