Perfect as a rental investment or for the single or couples. This two-story town house enjoys downstairs living space complete with direct access to the private north facing courtyard. The kitchen is well appointed with induction cooktop, electric oven while the dishwasher will take care of the dishes. Up-stairs the two spacious bedrooms are separated by the light and bright bathroom and toilet. There is also a toilet downstairs for guests and convenience. Views to the north to distant bush land provide a great outlook and great living at an affordable price.
