You can't look past this sunny & spacious refurbished first floor apartment, securely tucked away in a peacefully located block near the end of a quiet cul-de-sac in a prime tree-lined locale. Whether you're a first home buyer wanting to tap into the market or a savvy investor looking to add to your portfolio, you'll love the light, location & generous proportions of this well planned apartment with a flexible flowing floorplan. An updated well appointed kitchen with quality stainless steel appliances (including dishwasher), mirrored splashbacks & good storage flows through to a light filled dining space (optional study/third bedroom) with large windows enjoying a lovely leafy outlook. While a generous living room flooded with abundant natural light enjoys access to an undercover entertainer's balcony. This inviting apartment also features two sun kissed double bedrooms with built-in robes & an original good condition central bathroom with shower, bath, laundry facilities & a separate toilet. Other features include heating hallway storage, undercover off street parking for one car & secure intercom entry. This prized location is within walking distance to the magnificent Caulfield Park, Caulfield Racecourse, Caulfield Station, tram stops, Monash University, shops, restaurants & local cafes.
