Suspended high above the Brisbane riverfront with panoramic views across the sprawling cityscape, this luxury two-storey penthouse with a private rooftop terrace presents incomparable opulence and exclusivity. One of only five whole-floor residences designed by award-winning architect John Cunningham, the captivating property showcases an inspired aesthetic, infusing the sky-home with a sense of serenity and sophistication. The lift grants direct entry to the stylish sanctuary, unveiling exquisite marble tiles and bench-tops, satin brass hardware and tap-ware, and featuring Steccawood batons concealing abundant storage. Refined elegance and comfort await in the living and dining area, kept temperate with an electric fireplace and refreshing river breezes invited via bi-fold doors. Extending effortlessly to the balcony and ascending to your exclusive rooftop terrace with a swimming pool and mesmerising panoramas across the river, city and Story Bridge, you can entertain in style and embrace the best of nature and architecture while watching the skyscrapers come alive at night and the CityCats travelling along the river reach. Catering to exquisite dining and cocktail hour, the brilliant design houses a bespoke bar, built-in BBQ and a Gaggenau kitchen with a butler's pantry. An office/media room resides on the main living level, while four luxurious bedrooms and three bathrooms feature on a separate floor. The palatial master suite offers unrivalled opulence with a sprawling layout, walk-in robe and lavish ensuite. Showcasing riverside distinction, this luxury penthouse backs onto Merthyr Park and the iconic Brisbane River. Just 90m from Double Shot, an easy walk to the CityCat, and a stone's throw from New Farm Park, Merthyr Village, Howard Smith Wharves and James Street, an inspired lifestyle awaits.
