Nestled in the quiet family friendly haven of Armidale's central north lies 5/17 Jackes Street. Just minutes from town, this neat and tidy 2-bedroom apartment set back from the leafy, wide streets presents as a great opportunity for first home buyers looking to take the first step on the property journey, or a small family looking for a low-maintenance, comfortable home. Greeted upon entering by a large open-plan kitchen/living space, stylish details quickly become apparent such as the white subway tiles and the floating shelves in the kitchen, lit-up by the morning sunlight streaming through the large east facing glazing. Venturing deeper into the house reveals a compact and practical layout with a separate bathroom and toilet, updated in classic white tiling with black fittings, as well as two generous bedrooms. With parking one under the car-port attached to the unit and additional parking at the end of the driveway for guests, its proximity to town and its low-maintenance living, this property is sure to be snapped up soon, so get in touch with one of our agents as soon as possible to organise your viewing today.
