Set over three magnificent levels for eager Burwood buyers searching for a modern, versatile, and relaxed townhouse experience so close to Burwood Village and Presbyterian Ladies' College, this 4 bedroom + study, 3 bathroom, stylish parkside haven will delight even the most discerning of house hunters. Bamboo floors are your first introduction to this immaculate home, which has a ground level consisting of a living/dining zone and light-filled stone kitchen that delivers an abundance of bench space, soft-close drawers, stainless steel appliances and a north-facing deck. The first floor is reserved for the huge living room, which can be used for a variety of occasions, with this level promising the first of two master bedrooms that features a deluxe ensuite, air-conditioning and an extra-large walk-in robe. Also enjoy a north-facing balcony off this living zone that has breathtaking park vistas. The other master bedroom is positioned on the top floor and comes with a WIR and ensuite, with this top level enhanced by 2 more air-conditioned bedrooms with BIRs, family bathroom, and large home office space. The ground floor also features a low-maintenance garden, toilet, European laundry, 2 sheds, and a double garage. Right alongside Local History Park and Gardiners Creek Trail, you're moments to Deakin University, Parkhill Primary School, Ashwood High School, great Warrigal Road shops, buses, and local trams.
