Located directly opposite the Jindabyne Central School in the heart of town this multi-level, two bedroom, two bathroom apartment is situated at the western end of the "Parkwood" complex and as such only has one adjoining neighbour and has access to additional space & windows offering light and views not afforded to most other units in the complex.

*Level 1 – Entry is directly into the open plan lounge/dining & kitchen with sliding glass door to the north facing balcony with glimpse of the lake available above the school buildings.

*Second Level – Up a half level of stairs is the main bathroom with laundry facilities and a large bedroom with some under stair storage.

*Third Level – a loft style master bedroom with large west facing window with room for office space and opening to the living area below with stairs accessing the forth level which includes the Ensuite (vanity, toilet & shower over spa bath), wardrobe and storage space.

Other features include: a double undercover car parking space; quality fixtures, fittings & furnishings; Wi-Fi; keyless security lock; holiday approval in place for 6 people.
