Eastry Street is a lovely leafy street with a mix of old and new homes between the main hub of the Village of Norwood and the City. Upstairs this two storey house offers three bedrooms, (two with built in robes and one with ensuite), a large bathroom and access to roof storage. Downstairs is light and bright with open plan living/dining, well equipped kitchen and laundry with wc under the stairs. Two lovely courtyards front and rear - offer many possibilities for entertaining and access at the front is easy with double opening gates. This property has it all - location, style and great living spaces.
