$530,000

This is a totally unique apartment ideal for share occupancy with 2 bedrooms, 2 living areas, 2 kitchens, 2 bathrooms and 2 laundry's each on a seperate level. This would be a great first home for someone who would like to live in half and collect rent for the other half. With independent access you will never know they are there. The unit has an exclusive double lock up garage and is located at the end of the building meaning you only have one shared neighbour. Low body corps and currently rented at $660 per week for both units. As the property is currently tenanted, all inspections can be booked using the 'book inspection button'.
