Beyond the bright, north-facing spaces and low-maintenance outdoor dimensions of this inviting residence the natural beauty of Newport Lakes Reserve provides a leafy backdrop of unforgettable appeal and perfect privacy – it's a defining feature of this outstanding address. Ground level living and dining areas that catch the light and capture the views are complemented by polished floorboards and open-plan kitchen featuring stone bench-tops and stainless steel appliances while the courtyard contributes an attractive context for entertaining with the bushland behind you. An upstairs level that delivers three bedrooms and two bathrooms includes a light-filled main bedroom with its own beautiful view and a scintillating contemporary ensuite. A study space, central heating, downstairs laundry and a secure garage complete an impressive property in a uniquely alluring location!
