Keen to boost your lifestyle? Look no further than this pristine ground floor one-bedroom apartment that promises a dream lock-and-leave experience in a premier lifestyle location. Residing within the sought-after Parc Vue apartment complex that stands within short walking distance of Bundoora Park and its popular golf course, cafés, communal BBQ areas and children's playgrounds, Polaris Town Centre, bus services and the No.86 tram, which offers a direct route to La Trobe and RMIT universities, bars and cafes along High Street and Plenty Road and, of course, Melbourne's CBD, a five-star level of convenience resides at your door. And when you return to this sleek and stylish abode, you'll also discover that an elevated standard of living is also on display inside. A bright and stylish open-plan living area, enhanced with warm timber floorboards and full-length sliding door that filters an endless supply of natural light while also framing a soothing view across the complex's leafy surrounds. Simply step outside to the ground floor courtyard ideal and perfect for entertainment. Back inside, sleek stone surfaces, quality stainless steel appliances and a mirrored splashback add a layer of stylish sophistication to the open kitchen, while a chic bathroom that services a generous-sized bedroom enhancing the apartment's stylish persona. Complete with quality finishes, split-system heating/cooling, secure entry, NBN, study nook, European laundry and a single car space, this exceptional apartment represents a perfect entry into Bundoora as an owner-occupier or investor.
