Embrace the timeless allure of mid-century design in this exceptional elevated three bedroom apartment, showcasing a west facing orientation and a coveted parking space within the iconic 'Caringal Flats' development crafted by renowned architect John William Rivett in the 1950s. Revel in the architectural splendour of this landmark building, where captivating interiors are characterised by expansive floor-to-ceiling windows and an abundance of space. An airy open plan living and dining area is flooded with natural light from the west through a bank of windows and extends to a gorgeous curved balcony, offering a seamless indoor-outdoor lifestyle. Elegant sheer curtains and practical roller blinds provide both style and privacy, while a split system ensures year-round comfort. The generously proportioned kitchen boasts ample storage, stone benchtops, breakfast bar, a Bosch dishwasher and a Miele oven, ideal for culinary enthusiasts. The three double bedrooms all feature delightful outlooks and built-in robes, complemented by a bright and spacious bathroom with a shower over a bath and integrated laundry facilities. Additional appointments include a substantial storage room, and an allocated car space. Situated in a prestigious locale between Lansell and St Georges Road, with access from The Lane, this address places you amidst Melbourne's most desirable real estate, offering easy proximity to Toorak Village, trams, Heyington station, Yarra River walking trails, and the freeway. Position yourself in the heart of luxury and sophistication, where every amenity is at your fingertips and an esteemed lifestyle awaits.
