This big double storey townhome investment is set in a beautiful residential resort just a short stroll to the Broadwater. The townhouse features an open plan living area and impressive kitchen with stone benchtops, stainless steel appliances, 2 good sized pantries and loads of storage. The kitchen overlooks the delightful dining space that flows directly to the living room. Also on this level is the handy laundry with a separate powder room both off the welcoming entry foyer, excellent under stair storage and the double-door remote controlled 2 car lock up garage with internal access. Upstairs is the king-sized master bedroom with en-suite bathroom and private balcony, plus large study/separate family space and two more big bedrooms each boasting built-in robes that share the main bathroom with tub and free-standing shower and separate toilet. Each bedroom has reverse cycle air conditioning and ceiling fans and the north/south aspect of the home allows the prevailing breezes to flow through. Outdoors is an absolute delight with a lovely private patio with freshly landscaped backyard providing you the perfect place for alfresco dining, barbecues or just simply relaxing.
