If you're looking for a low maintenance lifestyle, located around schools and transport, this beautifully presented home is the one for you! A short distance to Thomas Chirnside Primary, Iramoo Primary, Eagle stadium, and not far from the heart of Werribee's Watton Street shops and cafes, this great first home, downsizer or investment property has plenty of amenities close by. This well presented two bedroom plus study home features a good-sized kitchen/meal and living area, overlooking the backyard. Kitchen comes with 600mm appliances and a dishwasher. The home has been freshly updated with new carpets and blinds. Both bedrooms come with their own built in robes. One of the best features with a home this size is that it comes with an important second toilet. Other features include ducted heating, garden shed and single remote garage. This beautiful home has everything you could possibly want and more – get in touch with the friendly team at Hodges Werribee and arrange your private inspection without delay!DISCLAIMER: All stated dimensions are approximate only.
