Welcome to the timeless charm of lakeside living at West Lakes, where Christine Holowiecki from Keeping It Realty invites you to discover an exquisite *1982 brick townhouse. Nestled amidst serene surroundings, this townhouse offers a lifestyle beyond imagination, blending contemporary luxury with tranquil vistas. Step into the welcoming open-plan lounge and dining area, where abundant natural light pours in through French colonial windows and sliding doors, inviting picturesque views of the surrounding beauty to become part of your daily life. The thoughtfully designed kitchen boasts modern appliances, including an oven, electric cooktop, breakfast bench, and stainless-steel dishwasher, ensuring culinary endeavours are a delight. Venture outside to the paved alfresco entertaining area, designed for year-round gatherings with loved ones. Whether it's intimate get-togethers or lively celebrations, this outdoor space will be your retreat for creating unforgettable memories. Practicality meets convenience with a second toilet on the ground floor off the laundry, ensuring ease of living. The flexible floorplan offers the option of a second living area or a large fourth bedroom, accommodating diverse lifestyle needs. Upstairs, the main bedroom welcomes you with plush carpets, a built-in robe, and a French door leading to your private balcony. Enjoy comfort year-round with an LG Reverse cycle split system downstairs and evaporative cooling upstairs. Situated within a small strata group, this well-built property boasts an impressive frontage of approximately 21 meters. Secure off-street car parking adds convenience, while easy access to multiple nearby public transport options enhances connectivity. Discover excellent schooling options nearby, including West Lakes Shore School just *1.1 kilometers away, LeFevre High School at *2.5 kilometers, and prestigious private schools like Portside Christian College and Star of the Sea School within easy reach. Embrace the opportunity to make this beautifully located property your own, where unbeatable views and a relaxing ambiance converge to create the perfect haven. Whether you seek tranquility, elegance, or practicality, this home has it all.
