Celebrate stylish, functional, and truly inviting townhouse living with this standout double storey residence. Quiet and privately situated well off the main road, and guaranteeing quality and class that is highly sought-after, this perfect 2 bedroom, 2 bathroom haven is the ideal match for first time buyers, professional couples, and those looking for a secure investment with so much upside. Let's start on the top floor where you'll get to relish the size, natural light, and inviting nature of the expansive lounge and meals zone, which has sliding door access out to a north-facing balcony which will be a hive of activity in the warmer months. Back inside, the wonderful kitchen is all you need for home cooking adventures, and includes pristine stone and stainless steel appliances. The master bedroom has a secluded place alone on the ground floor, and boasts walk-in robe storage and a pristine ensuite. Other home delights include a 2nd bedroom on the top floor with BIR, brilliant central bathroom, concealed laundry, split system heating and cooling, polished timber floors, and an extra-large single garage. You're a short stroll to picturesque parklands including Lebanon Reserve and Oak Park Reserve with aquatic centre, while you're also so close to Strathmore North Primary School, Strathmore Secondary College, Bernard's College, local shops, DFO Essendon, Niddrie Shopping Centre, local buses, and Oak Park Station.
