Art Deco opulence and grandeur combined with contemporary sophistication and a substantial floorplan are enticing hallmarks of this unique residence in a tightly held boutique building. Set back from Toorak Road, the home enjoys a supremely convenient locale with trams on the doorstep and Toorak Village within walking distance while remaining whisper quiet inside. Maintaining privacy from an elevated position and relishing a leafy outlook, a masterful fusion of traditional charm and modern functionality is delivered via dramatic dark timber floors, high ceilings, large bay windows providing an abundance of natural sunlight and an ideal north-east aspect creating a memorable first impression. Relaxing spaces include a sun-filled lounge with cosy gas fireplace opening to the balcony, perfect for a morning coffee watching the sunrise, bespoke kitchen with Caesarstone benchtops, Ilve gas cooktop and oven, Perrin and Rowe tapware and Chambord sink, separate dining zone, expansive elegant master bedroom with full wall of built in robes, two additional bedrooms also fitted with built in robes and a sleek renovated bathroom. Indulgences such as ducted heating/cooling, copious storage, concealed laundry facilities, rear access and a lock up garage provide ample comfort and convenience. Close to prestigious schools with public transport, shops, dining and amenities nearby.
