Step into luxury with this impressive two-bedroom, 2.5-bathroom penthouse apartment. Nestled in a prime location, it boasts its own dedicated top floor for your exclusive entertainment. Marvel at the expansive views from the bay to the city skyline, best enjoyed from your spacious terrace. Alternatively, sip a quiet coffee on your balcony off the main bedroom. As you enter, a central hallway welcomes you with a guest powder room and European laundry. The sun-drenched living and dining area, complete with an office corner, opens up to a fantastic entertaining terrace. The modern stone kitchen is equipped with stainless steel appliances and a convenient walk-in pantry. Prepare to be amazed by the immense proportions of the master bedroom, featuring walk-in robes, an ensuite bathroom, and a private balcony. The second bedroom offers a study nook and its own ensuite for added convenience. This penthouse is the perfect home for a growing family, offering a prime position and generous space within a small boutique group of only five apartments. With timber floors, a split system for cooling and heating, intercom access, and undercover parking, every detail has been considered. Enjoy the ease of having a tram stop just meters from your door step, with Elsternwick station and shops only a short ride away. This property truly has it all. Don't miss the opportunity to make this exceptional penthouse your own. Contact us today to arrange a viewing and experience the epitome of luxury living
