Located in a quiet block, this is the inner city apartment you have been waiting for. Boasting a contemporary design and modern fittings throughout, this property features open plan living encompassing a combined living and dining area. In the contemporary kitchen stainless steel appliances, long benches and large cupboards will please any budding chefs. The unit has a large balcony perfect for relaxing or entertaining. Tucked away from the living area is the luxurious master bedroom suite with a walk-in robe leading to a large ensuite. The second bedroom offers generous proportions and the use of a large main bathroom. Additional features of this home include air-conditioning, ceiling fans, security screens and a remote lock-up garage. Rarely do such well appointed apartments become available in this character filled patch of East Brisbane, so act quickly to secure your new inner city home.
