Nicholl & Young Property invite you to this beautifully renovated four-bedroom, two-bathroom home located at 5-7 Jingellic Drive, Buderim. Nestled on an expansive 881m² landscaped block along a tree-lined street, this residence exudes sophistication and tranquility. Inside, the property boasts a stylish interior with new carpets and timber floors throughout. The generously sized bedrooms provide both comfort and privacy, complemented by tastefully refurbished bathrooms. A double lock-up garage ensures secure parking, while the fully fenced property with an electric front gate and double street frontage guarantees privacy and accessibility. Enjoy the serenity of your surrounds with kangaroos that often frequent the park located just across the street. The meticulously maintained landscaped block features low-maintenance gardens, creating a picturesque setting. A ducted vacuum cleaner adds to the ease of maintaining the home. Entertain family and friends in the backyard oasis, complete with a saltwater pool featuring a new pump and chlorinator. The property is equipped with 24 solar panels for energy efficiency and cost savings. The refurbished kitchen, with modern appliances, caters to culinary enthusiasts. Titled roof re-pointed and sealed, along with new down lighting, enhances the durability and ambiance of the home. Conveniently located in a quiet, flat area, residents can easily cycle to the beach, skip over the back to the shops and benefit from being within the sought-after Mountain Creek school zone. This property offers a perfect blend of luxury, comfort, and convenience, making it a beautiful home to move straight into. Contact Nathan Nicholl and Steve Kane today to schedule a viewing and embrace the lifestyle this remarkable residence has to offer.
