This lovely home is presented with pride and will impress all whom inspect. Lovingly cared for over many years this home is perfect for a family looking for space or ideal for the farmer looking to retire. 5-7 O'Malley Street features a flexible floor plan made up of 5 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms. Each bedroom offers a built-in robe whilst the master enjoys a walk-in robe and private ensuite. The home offers a large open plan lounge dining in addition to the spacious main living area at the front of the home. The central kitchen is well equipped with an electric cooktop, under bench oven, pantry, an abundance of cupboard space and overlooks the lounge and dining area. Alongside the home is a detached rumpus or 'man cave' as some might call it. Fully lined this area could be decked out as a games room or sleepout for the teenage kids. The property enjoys substantial shedding and undercover car accommodation. For anyone looking to store their boat, caravan, vehicles or toys, this property ticks all the boxes. Situated on 2,095sqm the yard is a blank canvas and one you can add your personal touch. There is an abundance of space for the kids to play on the grass or ride their bikes and scooters. Enjoying a great location with local amenities only a short walk to the town's main street and amenities. Features we love: - Flexible floor plan - Split system air conditioning and ceiling fans - Double size block - Fully fenced - Solar and rainwater - Spacious shedding for the cars, boat, caravan and additional storage - Detached games room/rumpus - Close proximity to amenities With quality homes in Cummins at a premium, don't miss your opportunity to purchase now.
