Promising an unforgettable lifestyle and nestled toward the rear of a boutique development, is this fabulous townhouse that offers security, space and a coveted location. Walking distance to Edwardes Lake Parklands, Edwardes Street, Broadway shopping/dining and multiple public transportation options. The meticulously presented interior reveals a separate living area at the front of the home that can also be utilized as a separate meals area or study and an open plan kitchen/living domain at the rear with doors accessing a low maintenance yet sizable paved courtyard. A stunning chef's kitchen with a beautiful tiled splash-back comes equipped with stainless steel appliances, range hood and ample storage. Further along up the staircase is a three-bedroom sleeping wing with balcony and central bathroom. This home also has the added bonus of ducted heating and cooling, a separate laundry and a single car garage with roller door access to the rear yard.
