This stunning split level, three-bedroom luxury apartment is a haven for those looking to downsize, young families, professionals, couples and/or savvy investors. Features include generous living and dining areas that flow to a sun-drenched North facing entertainer's balcony boasting an elevated private leafy outlook. All bedrooms have their own private balcony, built-in wardrobes and the main featuring a full ensuite. The generous main bathroom has a separate shower and bath and there is a separate guest toilet. Large internal laundry and complete with security double lock-up garage with remote access. The property is well presented as is, yet offers fantastic potential to further update and enhance to your own taste. Positioned only a short walk from the heart of Neutral Bay, boasting an ample choice of shops, cafes and public transport to the city and beaches. An inspection will not disappoint!
