Embodying clever contemporary living, this two bedroom plus study abode impresses from every angle. Enhanced by an easy care courtyard, it highlights an elegant kitchen, dining and family zone offering dual access points to a covered balcony. Well-proportioned bedrooms with walk-in robes are divided between the two storeys, as are fully tiled dual entry bathrooms with rainfall showers. The versatile study or retreat leads to the courtyard, while top extras include heating/air conditioning and an automatic double garage with direct interior access. Within the highly sought Strathmore College zone, it's only seconds to Fraser Reserve, close to transport and Moonee Ponds Creek Trail, just a short drive to convenient CityLink access and thriving retail and dining precincts, including Puckle Street.
