For those looking for meticulous presentation, this house proud owner has spared no expense to present you with what could possibly be the best home in the popular Mt. Lion Estate. Appealing formal living will lead you to the newly updated kitchen boasting stone benches, all new appliances and ample cupboard space. Centrally located family room has access to a delightful decked entertaining area where you can be the perfect host entertaining family and friends alike. There are four good size bedrooms, master with walk in robes and new ensuite while the new designer bathroom and separate toilet services the rest. Outside very spacious manicured gardens will be a hit with the kids and your pets plus the cars will be secure in the remote double garage with rear access while a terrific rear workshop is just the place to work on that next project. Just some of the many extras include ducted heating,, split system, bus transport close by and easy access to local primary/secondary schools and recreation grounds. The opportunity to purchase and literally just walk in with nothing to do, it's just way too good to let slip by. Make your next inspection here and start living the dream.--
