This 3 bedroom, 1 bathroom home with a granny flat is located in the a very quiet street and is filled with all the modern conveniences you could wish for. Enter into the spacious hall way through to the open plan living, dining and kitchen area that leads to the outdoor entertainment space. The kitchen is renovated and features a dishwasher, double stainless steel sink, induction cooktop with range hood and a huge island bench. This home is fully tiled throughout with plantation shutters a feature, split system aircon, ceiling fans and a combustion wood heater. The master bedroom is very sizeable and has an extra area that could be used as a nursery or turned into a walk through robe, you also have access to the rear yard through a set of French doors. The two other bedrooms are of a good sized and are all serviced by a bathroom with a spa bath, shower with the WC located separately for convenience. Outside is a big shed next to the salt water pool with a lovely patch of lawn and beautiful planting. The huge undercover entertaining can be used in all seasons as it has a ceiling fan and also a wood fire place. Next to this area is a self contained studio that would be perfect for guests or a teenagers retreat. This property has beautiful street appeal with established gardens and there is a park located directly across the street. To book a viewing please call Drew or Toni today 0458 739 469.
