Step into the serene embrace of country living at 5 Barkers Rd, St Helens, where the former St Helens School built in 1876 has been lovingly restored into a captivating two-bedroom home. Nestled on just over 1 acre of picturesque land, this enchanting property offers a respite from the hustle and bustle, inviting you to slow down and reconnect with nature. The home exudes historical charm while seamlessly blending modern comforts. A beautifully updated kitchen, bathed in natural light, serves as the heart of the home, while a spacious living area, adorned with cathedral ceilings and a free-standing wood fire, beckons for cozy evenings. Original Baltic pine floorboards throughout add warmth and character. The well appointed stair case leads to the two charming bedrooms each offering a peaceful retreat. Outside, the property boasts several sheds, one of which presents an opportunity for conversion into a cozy bungalow or additional guest accommodation, complete with a toilet and shower. With tank water feeding the house and a bore for outdoor use, self-sufficiency is within reach. Wildlife flourishes amidst the lovely gardens, creating a sanctuary for nature lovers. Just a scenic 20-minute drive from Port Fairy and close to the amenities of the historic township of Yambuk, this property offers the perfect blend of seclusion and convenience. Embrace the allure of rural living and make 5 Barkers Rd your own haven for tranquility and inspiration.
