Ray White Port Douglas is proud to present this exceptional 4-bedroom home, showcasing a rare and enviable position with sought after views along the prestigious Mirage Drive. An exciting opportunity for the discerning buyer Number 5 Beachfront Mirage offers unparalleled elegance and breath taking surroundings. As you step in, an opulent escape awaits. You'll be greeted by two tranquil ponds that frame the entranceway, leading to the breath taking infinity pool. The open plan yet integrated living concept with soaring timber-lined cathedral ceilings seamlessly merges indoor and outdoor areas, fostering a unified ambiance of barefoot luxury. The thoughtfully crafted kitchen with sleek modern finishes smoothly integrates with the lounge area and outdoor kitchen, creating a harmonious flow from inside to outside. With its expansive waterfall island bench and generously proportioned walk-in pantry, there's plenty of room to gather, socialise and entertain guests. Three of the four bedrooms enjoy their own ensuite and walk in robes. The bedrooms feature vast glass sliding doors that offer an uninterrupted flow to secluded outdoor retreats, elevating the sense of privacy and tranquillity. The primary bedroom is of significant proportions and offers an expansive view of the golf course with tropical foliage and swaying palms. This architect-designed residence cleverly invites continuous tropical breezes and ensures there are multiple zones for complete relaxation. The renowned Beachfront Mirage Estate is situated moments from the golden sands of Four Mile Beach, and a short distance from Macrossan Street for five star dining and shopping. Due to unforeseen circumstances the Vendor is motivated to sell and we welcome you to contact Lee Tartaglia 0499 043 311 or Soula Kazakis 0422 966 573 today to arrange your private inspection and secure your future in Port Douglas.
