SOLD AT AUCTION BY JOHN PASCERI - 0405 134 726A residence that's been held in the same family's hands for some 30 years, this classically inviting home presents blank canvas possibilities in a cul-de-sac setting that's literally moments' walk from Coolaroo station. Three bedrooms, each with built-in robes, share a bathroom fitted with a family friendly separate bath and shower. Lots of bright natural light accompanies a living room defined by timber laminate flooring and a bay window while the dining zone's glass sliding doors brings a sense of the outside in. Functionality, pleasing bench-space, ample storage and easy update scope complement the kitchen while a separate laundry concludes the indoor proportions. The paved, covered patio, the rear garden's depth and a wide side drive that arrives at a substantial garage highlight the potential of the 556m2 approx. allotment that also offers a double carport and secure additional parking. Proximity to parks, Meadow Heights Shopping Centre and schools further enhances a property providing exceptional options for adding fresh contemporary touches and enjoying its next family phase.
