Showcasing the perfect fusion of elegance and style across a delightful single level design, this spacious family home provides an open and airy aesthetic that incorporates formal and family zones along with alfresco entertaining. Poised in the Mount Waverley Secondary Zone (STSA) and framed by a gorgeous, hedged garden, the home's streamlined dimensions are destined to delight with the formal lounge and dining room glamorously detailed with polished floorboards, a gas log fire and plantation shutters. A large meals zone encourages the family to dine together every evening and connects through to a stylish kitchen boasting stone benches, 900mm gas stove, Bosch oven, LG dishwasher plus a breakfast bench. Northerly sunshine seeps into the family room where French doors provide the perfect connection out onto the alfresco entertaining deck and private child-friendly backyard. Certain to delight the growing family, the four bedrooms are all large in size and include a massive master bedroom with plantation shutters, fitted walk-in-robe and ensuite, further served by a family bathroom, 2-way toilet and laundry with Robinhood ironing board. Ensuring comfort throughout the year, you'll find the benefits of ducted heating and split system air conditioning, while the double garage is open at the rear for easy garden maintenance. Placed only a short walk from Tally Ho Reserve, near Mount Waverley North Primary, Mount Waverley Secondary, Wesley College, Huntingtower School, Burwood One Shopping Centre, The Glen, Mount Waverley Village, trains, buses and trams.
