Open the door to this circa 1910 Stone Cottage that has an abundance of character. Make your way through the hallway entrance boasting high ceilings and original flooring. Freshly painted throughout, 3 bedrooms with the Main Bedroom consisting of built-in shelves, cupboards and an open fireplace, perfect for keeping warm on those cool nights. Large, open plan living room is freshly painted with fireplace, original wooden flooring, and access to the verandah that wraps around to the front of the home. The updated, eat-in kitchen has a light and airy feel to it, with freshly painted cabinetry, gas cooktop, and plenty of bench space that overlooks the backyard. Spacious bathroom and separate toilet is situated at the back of the home. Outside is a lovely play space for the kids with lush green lawns, enclosed side yard with chicken coop. Two open, undercover parking spaces with an enclosed workshop and shedding, and paved back area, all situated on approx. 865 sqm. Contact Donna Blight for more information on 0409 081 165
