

5 Buchanan Place, Tarcoola Beach, WA 6530

Sold House

Friday, 22 March 2024

5 Buchanan Place, Tarcoola Beach, WA 6530

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 851 m2

Type: House

Gail Clarkson
0419945235

Contact agent

Here's your chance to live in the best cul-de-sac in town, 5 Buchanan Place, located in the sought-after coast side suburb of Tarcoola Beach. This solidly built 80s brick and tile home is designed with families in mind, with plenty of space, comfort and convenience. Leisurely beach walks are only a short stroll away, which can be followed by a refreshing swim in the ocean. Inside the home you'll be delighted by the spaciousness of a 4-bedroom, 2-bathroom home, which has an open plan kitchen, living and dining area, ideal for family gatherings. Additionally, a separate lounge room provides a cosy retreat for relaxation. Outdoor living is elevated with a decked patio seamlessly extending from the house, equipped with roller blinds, making this space useable year round. Once outside, you'll be greeted by an inviting pool, which includes a shady pergola and a separate enclosed pool room that provides an additional entertaining area for friends and family to enjoy. With space for vehicles in mind, you'll appreciate the double garage as well as the single car garage located at the rear of the property. For those with caravans or boats, the side access offers ample room for parking. 5 Buchanan Place offers a lifestyle of comfort, convenience and relaxation in a fantastic street. If you're seeking a family home or beachside retreat, this property ticks all the boxes. Get in quick, contact Gail Clarkson on 0419 945 235 to arrange your viewing today!