Chasing a Sea Change, somewhere quiet and away from the hustle and bustle but still only a 40 minute drive away from the Northern Suburbs. Look no further. This solid brick and iron home is situated in a quiet cul-de-sac and only a short walk from the Moore River where you can take the kids kayaking, fishing, swimming, sandboarding and more. The local café, store and beach are also only a short drive or walk away. Consisting of three-bedrooms and two-bathrooms. With the master room offering its own private sanctuary with both bedroom and own bathroom set behind closed doors at the end of the passage. Also includes a lounge, kitchen and dining, with high ceilings giving a sense of space and keeping the home cool in Summer. Located off the kitchen you will find the second bathroom and laundry. Step outside, where the large verandah is a great place for the whole family to hang out and more. Also includes a large lock up shed to the rear of the property. Property is fully furnished all you need to do is move in. NOTE: There is an option to lease unfurnished however if so the shed will no longer be available. PETS CONSIDERED however note there is no fencing to the front of property. Please call to arrange a viewing.
