This incredible, north facing home in quiet cul-de-sac location is sure to impress. With a large 834m² lot in a beautiful, treed location, you have a wonderful feeling of space and privacy. A relaxing and tranquil location, immersed within nature. The home itself has undergone a beautiful renovation, with a classic modern style. A clever colour palette using neutral tones, with a touch of Hamptons class, the house feels homely and inviting. With nothing left to do, you can simply move in and enjoy all this wonderful property has to offer. In a well-maintained street, the home has great curb appeal and upon entry you are greeted with a warm ambience and a gorgeous 600mm tile throughout. With two large, separate living areas both offering views across the established gardens and sparkling swimming pool, you are spoiled for choice of where to relax and unwind. The open plan design from the family living works perfectly with the stunning Hamptons style kitchen. This beautiful design has a feature tile splashback, stone island bench with breakfast bar and is the ideal place to entertain with family and friends. Flowing to the large, covered outdoor entertaining area, you can easily see the days being enjoyed in your wonderful back garden, huge swimming pool, all while maximizing that idyllic northerly aspect. The backdrop from here is gorgeous, with lots of nature and trees in the distance, you feel like you are a world away from the stresses of life. Plenty of room for all on this generous lot, it is rare to have this much space on offer. Upstairs is a huge master suite with private balcony and gorgeous ensuite, with floor to ceiling tiles, his & her vanities and large WIR. On the lower level is a guest wing with three spacious bedrooms and beautiful main bathroom, again with floor to ceiling tiles, and stone benchtop vanity.
