Discover serenity in one of Buderim's picturesque, tranquil, and family-friendly streets, adorned with lush greenery and ample parking. This charming home boasts a solid hardwood frame, gleaming timber floors, and a split-level design, accentuated by high ceilings. Outdoors, a substantial concrete block shed awaits, perfect for accommodating your caravan or RV. The upper level of this home features freshly polished timber floors, eliminating any trace of outdated carpets. The property sits on a spacious, flat 607sqm block with a generously wide frontage, a rarity in today's market. Children can safely ride their bikes to school, or take a leisurely walk, while gardening enthusiasts will delight in the fertile Buderim soil, capable of nurturing a diverse range of flora while making use of their water tank. Originally crafted in 1968 by a local Buderim builder, this home has remained in the family's possession until now, making this its debut on the market. Now, it's time for a new fortunate family to relish its charms. This property offers versatility, allowing you to renovate and infuse your personal style while comfortably residing in it. The lower level features a "rumpus" family room with a shower, toilet, and an outdoor sink. The driveway offers ample space to park your caravan or RV, up to 7 vehicles can be easily accommodated. Alternatively, you may opt to embark on a new journey and build your dream home complete with a pool and an open-plan layout. The possibilities here are boundless so don't miss out, call Stacy now!
