The bright Melbourne lights and the peaks of Mount Dandenong paint a mesmerising backdrop for this near-new 4-bedroom residence, matching its incredible vistas with a space of sheer modern elegance. Its architectural brilliance effortlessly blends form and function, creating an ambience of sophistication and tranquillity in a charming parkside locale. A reverse-style layout ingeniously capitalises on the views stretching over the bay and city to the eastern expanse of the Dandenong Ranges, strategically zoning its main living and dining spaces on the upper floor. The well-appointed kitchen features a Westinghouse 900mm gas cooker and a dishwasher, allowing for easy entertaining on the expansive alfresco deck and yard adjoining the downstairs living space. The main bedroom delivers a walk-in robe and a twin-vanity ensuite while relishing bushland views over the adjacent reserve, with three additional bedrooms on the lower floor arranged around a central bathroom and laundry. An embrace of modernity and comfort delivers features like evaporative cooling, ducted heating, split-system air conditioning, camera security, and a spacious double garage. A living experience where little luxuries meet panoramic beauty sits metres from buses and Carrum Downs Secondary College, a short drive from Local Village and Carrum Downs shopping centres, Banyan Fields Primary, Sandhurst Club, and freeway access.
