Introducing a captivating residence nestled in the heart of Winchelsea, where tranquility and warmth meets sophistication. This exquisite 4-bedroom home with large outdoor living area, set on a large allotment and on a family friendly quiet street, presents an unparalleled opportunity to embrace a country lifestyle of luxury and comfort. Beyond the quaint, brick veneer cottage style façade, step into this updated modern home, adorned with tasteful finishes and flooded with natural light. The well-appointed wrap-around kitchen features generous 40mm stone benchtops, large pantry, quality Fisher & Paykel oven and cooktop and plumbed water point to the fridge space. The kitchen seamlessly flows into the open-plan dining area, complete with fireplace and windows overlooking the gardens, creating an ideal space for both intimate family dinners and grand entertaining. The master suite is a sanctuary of its own, boasting a renovated ensuite and ample closet space with built in cabinetry. Three additional bedrooms and a study provide versatility for a growing family, a home office, or guest accommodation. Keeping comfortable all year round is easy, with this home being serviced by flue system ducted heating, a wood fireplace and split system air-conditioning. What sets this property apart is the outdoor living space, a fully decked large pergola and alfresco area, which can be fully weather-proofed with zip-track roll down blinds and outdoor heat panels. Sprawling, meticulously landscaped front and rear gardens also surround the home. Enjoy the serenity of your own private oasis, perfect for alfresco dining, outdoor gatherings, or simply unwinding amidst nature's beauty.
