A tropical holiday might be an exaggeration, But! this beauty of a brick home sure feels private and secluded thanks to some well established, lush and inviting gardens spanning the perimeter of the property. Located in Kepnock, moments from the CBD and a quick drive to the beach, the low-set brick and tile home was built in 1960 and has recently been refreshed, celebrating the original timber floors and providing a fantastic, turn key ready, new home for a young family.
