This charming 1935's character cottage is a truly delightful property with loads of character and plenty of features to appeal to a wide range of buyers. You'll feel the warmth and character of the house the moment you step inside. With its beautifully lined Baltic pine walls and ceilings and original timber floors, these all add to the rustic charm and authenticity of the home. The open plan living features an open fireplace with ornate wood heater which adds to the overall ambience and cosiness of the home, providing a perfect spot for gathering around during cold winter nights. The new kitchen is both functional and stylish, with modern appliances and ample counter and storage space, this is the perfect example of blending new with the old and doing it really well. The cottage has three bedrooms and one bathroom, providing ample space for a small family or a couple looking for extra room. The reverse cycle air conditioner ensures comfort all year round, providing both heating and cooling as needed. A second living room will cater for entertaining friends and family and includes a Gourmet woodstove / cooker together with a wetback attached which will reduce your hot water costs. One of the highlights of this property is the guest studio, which is perfect for visiting family and friends or a quiet work from home office space. The workshop is perfect for those who love to tinker or have a hobby, and the carport provides convenient off-street parking. A garden and woodshed are also a welcoming addition for further storage. If you enjoy gardening, you will love the veggie gardens and hot house that are ready for planting, whilst the chickens will have their own home ready to occupy, plus there's also a cat enclosure, making it a safe and secure place for your feline friends to play and explore the great outdoors safely. The property sits on 1224sqm of land, providing plenty of space, while still being conveniently located close to the township and tourist attractions. This is a great opportunity to own a unique and charming cottage, with all the features and amenities needed for a comfortable and enjoyable lifestyle.
