Nestled in the heart of the family-oriented beach suburb of Williamstown, stands a truly remarkable piece of history. This beautifully renovated Victorian home, built in 1881 by Captain John Fitzgibbon, exudes character and charm while seamlessly blending modern comforts for the ideal family lifestyle. Step inside this welcoming abode and immediately feel the embrace of its inviting atmosphere that gracefully extends throughout every corner. With three bedrooms featuring built-in robes and two bathrooms, there's abundant space for the whole family to enjoy. The warm tones of the hardwood timber floors, paired with plush carpeting in the bedrooms, provide a cozy sanctuary to relax in and call home. In the heart of the home lies a spacious open-plan living area that seamlessly integrates the kitchen with a cozy living space. Prepare culinary delights amidst the Miele dishwasher, Delonghi electric oven with a gas cooktop, and ample storage for all your kitchen essentials. Adjacent to the kitchen, the living room invites relaxation and entertainment, boasting a Bose surround sound system with app connectivity from your phone. Whether you're hosting gatherings or unwinding after a long day, this feature enhances your living experience. During the warmer months, the outdoor entertainment area beckons for al fresco dining and leisurely relaxation. Step onto the deck and discover a charming brick yard, perfect for soaking up the sun or hosting gatherings. Additionally, a convenient storage shed offers ample space to store outdoor essentials, ensuring your living areas remain clutter-free. Whether you're entertaining guests or seeking a peaceful retreat, this outdoor oasis provides endless opportunities for enjoyment and relaxation. Convenience is paramount beyond the comforts of home. This property is conveniently zoned to Williamstown North Primary School which is only a short walking distance away. Additionally, with seamless access to the Westgate Freeway and close proximity to both Williamstown North Station and Newport Station, commuting to the CBD or exploring Melbourne's West is effortless. Embrace a lifestyle where Williamstown Beach and The Strand are mere moments away, inviting leisurely strolls and endless seaside enjoyment. Immerse yourself in the rich history of the area, where the neighbouring No. 3 was once a bustling bakery, adding to the neighbourhood's vibrant tapestry of stories and heritage. Discover the perfect blend of old-world charm and contemporary comfort in this inviting home, ready to set the stage for unforgettable family memories.
