

5 Durkin Street, Macksville, NSW 2447

Sold House

Friday, 29 September 2023

5 Durkin Street, Macksville, NSW 2447

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 1

Area: 440 m2

Type: House

Corey Wong

Pamela Pearse
0265686605

$485,000

Welcome to 5 Durkin St, a beautifully cherished 3-bedroom, 1-bathroom cottage, charmingly nestled in the gorgeous country town of Macksville, on the banks of the Nambucca River, combining rural charm with a relaxed water-based lifestyle...As you arrive, be captivated by its distinctive white picket fence and timbered glass windows refreshingly embracing natural light with the lush welcome of curated gardens. Inside, the home exudes a homeliness feel fused with strong character and harmonious blend of neutral tones. Its timeless charm is amplified by high ceilings, ornate cornicing alongside air conditioning and ambient fireplace that imbues a classic warmth during winter months. In the heart of the home, you'll find an original timeless kitchen equipped with electric cooking and a classically preserved glass slider door for division. Unwind effortlessly on a rear veranda shared with a cute laundry with second toilet and additional storage room of versatile space. A dis-used outdoor toilet makes for a superb firewood storage hut, whilst several outdoor garden sheds make for simple storage solutions. Location-wise, Durkin St hits the sweet spot. Brimming with history and heritage, enjoy the vibrant local lifestyle providing a relaxed flat walk to handy township shops, library, eateries, cafes and clubs met with a short drive to the local Showground for markets and yearly events. The breath-taking beaches of Scotts Head are a mere 15-minutes' drive away, furthermore, it's within walking distance to local primary and secondary schooling, gym and aquatic centre, or minutes to fabulous fishing places. With five-stars for family-friendliness, it's the ideal choice for first time home buyers and those downsizing for fuss-free living 35-minutes from Coffs Harbour.