With its classic white picket fence and wrap-around verandah, this country-style home enjoys a quiet cul-de-sac location within minutes from the Hunter Expressway. Fresh off the back of a complete internal renovation, this inviting home will impress and inspire with its lofty ceilings, timber-look flooring and serene colour palette. A classic gloss kitchen embodies the heart of the home complete with an island bench for the family to gather round and matte black fixtures for a stylish contrast. An expansive lounge and dining area complements with split system air conditioning for year round comfort. Cosy textured grey carpet is appointed to all three generous bedrooms achieving a relaxing ambience with built-in robes to every room (rare for this era of home!). The exquisite main bathroom is another highlight, flaunting luxury appeal with its stand-alone tub and quality feature tiling. Situated only 5 minutes from the Hunter Expressway and just 1 minute to Kurri's main street, this beautiful home will suit a variety of buyers from downsizers to first home buyers and is a must-inspect property for your Saturday.
