This stunning property, at 5 Erinvale Close, boasts a commanding hilltop position with panoramic views of Gisborne. Meticulously designed by Fasham Johnson, it's a masterpiece that embraces natural light through floor to ceiling windows, offering stunning views from every angle. This spacious 5010 m² (approx.) allotment is conveniently situated within walking distance to town and has the bonus of direct pedestrian access to Jackson's Creek reserve. The house features a well-equipped kitchen with WIP, a family room with cathedral ceiling and a cozy lounge with a gas log fire. The west facing undercover alfresco is the perfect place to enjoy gorgeous sunsets while entertaining. With three bedrooms and a study / fourth bedroom there's ample space for your family. The master bedroom has a beautiful outlook plus BIR's and large ensuite. The three additional bedrooms are generously proportioned and serviced by a bathroom, shower room and separate WC. Outside you will find a double carport and a separate shed that is perfect for extra storage space or a workshop. Completing the property are established gardens, that add to the sense of privacy and seclusion. 5 Erinvale Close is the perfect blend of elegance, comfort, and natural beauty.
