Situated on a sunny Gregory Hills street, with its neat frontage and quiet atmosphere, 5 Explorer Street offers picture-perfect family-friendly living at its best. This wonderful four-bedroom home is surrounded by local parks and sits within walking distance of Gregory Hills shops and Gregory Hills Public School. The home opens to a bright and welcoming interior, complete with tall ceilings and a coffered entry, large floor tiling, three-step cornices, and thick skirting boards. There are a range of quality features throughout, including an abundance of double connection points, down lights, and plantation shutters. The core kitchen, family and dining areas are open plan, spacious, and particularly comfortable, allowing for an excellent space for everyday relaxation that is further enhanced by the nearby theatre room. The kitchen also features a large Caesarstone island; 900mm gas cooking and Baumatic oven; beautiful dark timber cabinetry; and a walk-in pantry with connections. Bedrooms are primarily found along the back hall, supplied by a shared study space and sleek bathroom with stone-top vanity and feature tiling niches. Bedrooms sport ceiling fans, ducted air conditioning, and double built-in wardrobes, whilst the private front-facing master appreciates additional air conditioning, a walk-in wardrobe, and ensuite. When it comes to entertaining, you'll appreciate the easily served sunroom with its adjustable blinds. Just a few steps beyond will lead you to the covered outdoor entertaining area, which boasts an additional timber-decked entertaining space and tidy backyard with a large shed.
