Positioned in one of Murrumbreena's finest streets, this Spanish Mission period home creates a spectacular and rare opportunity for buyers with vision. Accompanied by an allotment featuring exceptional proportions of 929sqm (approx), this home is filled with vintage charm including high decorative ceilings and beautiful leadlight windows. The 3 bedroom, 1 bathroom spaces comprise of traditional lounge and dining rooms, kitchen (WIP) and off street parking – reflecting the character of a residence that remains entirely serviceable today, yet suggests exciting scope tomorrow. Add your own contemporary flair and/or extend into the deep rear garden, renovate the existing and add a second dwelling to the rear, or start afresh and build a palatial new residence with a pool or multiple townhouses (STCA).
