Closing Date Sale Tuesday 14th November 2023 at 6pm (unless sold prior) Bathed in light and flawlessly presented, this enviable four-bedroom Frankston Heights residence with self-contained one-bedroom cottage provides an irresistible multi-generational living opportunity in footsteps to the primary school and the local cafe strip, whilst all in the Frankston High School zone. Cleverly crafted across a capacious single level with two striking living zones and an alfresco room, the residence flaunts a large contemporary kitchen in the heart appointed with sleek benchtops and sleek stainless-steel appliances. Fresh tones and hardwood timber flooring lend a laidback coastal aesthetic, while all-season entertaining is facilitated with a choice of hosting spaces, whether lunching in the alfresco room or barbecuing in the garden before slipping into the spa for a soak beneath the stars. The master bedroom delights with a walk-in robe and elegance ensuite, while the three junior bedrooms are served by a second chic bathroom with dual rainshower in the main residence. The ultimate package for those with dependant in-laws, adult kids saving for their own home or for the home based business, is the detached cottage which boasts a living room with high ceiling and driftwood-style flooring, a kitchenette, bedroom and its own modern ensuite. Just 900 metres to the new Towerhill Shopping Centre and a short zip to Frankston city centre, Monash University, Frankston Hospital and the beach, the property includes ducted heating, split-systems, solar panels and a triple carport. Contact Dean Bozunovic or Jake Kostrzewa today to discuss securing your very own slice of Paradise. We look forward to seeing you at our open for inspection.
